

McKINLEY SWEEPS THE COUNTRY!

Elected by an Even Greater Plurality

Than Was His Good Fortune of Four Years Ago.

Carried All of the Close States, and Will Very Likely Gain Others---Mr. Bryan Gained In Popular Vote.

The Silent Vote Was With President McKinley, Which Tells the Story---Entire Republican County Ticket Elected.

President McKinley more than held his own in the election yesterday, gaining several of the States that were for Mr. Bryan in 1896.

Both of the candidates received popular votes in excess of that cast for them in 1896.

Mr. McKinley carried all the doubtful States except Kentucky, including Maryland, Indiana, New York, Kansas and South Dakota, while the Republican committee claims that the electoral votes of Kentucky and even Nebraska will be cast for McKinley.

Never has an Administration received a more general endorsement of the American people, and the result of the election has fully justified the most extravagant claims that were made by the Republican National committee in behalf of its ticket.

The indications are also that the Republican party makes very substantial gains in the House of Representatives. Congressman Lentz, of Columbus, was defeated, and the Democrats lost other members of the Ohio delegation. At the time the Democrat went to press the result of the election in the Twentieth Ohio District was in doubt.

New York gives its vote to Mr. McKinley by a plurality of 150,000. Ohio will be Republican by about the same plurality which was given to Mr. McKinley four years ago---in the neighborhood of 50,000. Mr. Bryan gained not one State which had been claimed for Mr. McKinley.

Indications at the time that the Democrat went to press were that Mr. McKinley had carried New York, South Dakota, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Wisconsin, Kentucky, Minnesota and New Jersey.

Following is a complete summary of the result of the election in the various States wherein the contest was of interest.

substantial but considerably reduced majority, giving to President McKinley 15 votes in the electoral college while W. Murray Crane was re-elected Governor.

Connecticut.

New Haven, Conn., Nov. 6. (Spl.)---10:55 p. m.---With only the larger cities and less than a dozen towns in Connecticut missing, the returns at 11 o'clock indicate the election of McKinley Electors by a plurality of 12,000 votes, and the return of all four Republican Congressmen.

Maryland.

Baltimore, Md., Nov. 6. (Spl.)---Murray Van De Vere, Chairman of the Democratic state committee concedes Maryland to McKinley.

The Baltimore-American claims Maryland for McKinley by 25,000 majority, and a full Republican Congressional delegation.

Quay Wins Out.

Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 6. (Spl.)---A bitter contest between the Quay and anti-Quay forces in the fifth Senatorial district, made up of six wards in this city, resulted in a victory for Wm. H. Berkebach, the Quay candidate by about 30,000 majority. Quay has won out throughout the entire state.

Kansas.

Topeka, Kas., Nov. 6. (Spl.)---There is absolutely nothing on which to base an estimate of Kansas. Only two small precincts have been completed. These show very little change.

Delaware.

Medina, O., Nov. 6. (Spl.)---Fourteen precincts of Medina county give McKinley 2162, Bryan 1704, Beidler 1470. Harrington (Dem.) 1650, Phillips (Ind. Rep.) 856. The indications are that Mr. Harrington, the Democratic candidate for Congress, will be elected, Cuyahoga county having given 1500 plurality against Beidler.

Cleveland, O., Nov. 6. (Spl.)---Candidate Beidler carried Lake county but ran 1,500 votes behind his ticket in Cuyahoga County. At the time the Democrat's extra went to press his election was still in doubt, depending upon the action of the Medina county voters, from whom returns were tardy in arriving.

Cleveland, O., Nov. 6. (Spl.)---At 4 a. m. Cuyahoga county was still in doubt, although the Republican committee claimed it for Mr. McKinley by 2,000. They claimed the city of Cleveland by 600. The Democratic committee claims the county is still doubtful.

The election of Judge U. L. Marvin, of Akron, to succeed himself as Circuit Judge is assured. His plurality in Summit, Lorain and Medina counties will give him a substantial plurality in the district.

Concord, N. H., Nov. 6. (Spl.)---Secretary Thos. H. Madigan, Jr., of the Democratic State committee, concedes that the Republicans have carried the State by a plurality of 15,000.

Kentucky.

Frankfort, Ky., Nov. 6. (Spl.)---The best estimate on Kentucky indicates the certain election of the eight Democratic Congressmen out of 11. Bryan's plurality is likely to reach 15,000.

Nebraska.

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 6. (Spl.)---Special fusion managers assert that Bryan will have at least 8,000 majority. Bryan's precinct went for McKinley 208, Bryan 105.

Celebrating Their Great Victory.

It Was a Great, Big Landslide

And Mr. Bryan's Friends Were Quick to Tumble.

Daily Democrat Bulletins Were Most Popular.

Thousands of eager, anxious voters, among whom were many ladies, were on the streets early in the evening to receive the returns.

A number of places had been advertised where election news would be received and the majority of the people sought those places.

Probably the largest number of people between 9 and 11 o'clock were assembled in front of the Democrat office, where the election returns were thrown on a large canvas by magic lantern.

Fully 10,000 people were assembled here at 10 o'clock and the air was rent with cheers by both sides when they read returns favorable to their respective candidates.

The Beacon Journal also gave the returns by aid of stereopticon views.

The Central Union Telephone company gave returns on a large canvas in front of its block. Hundreds of people received them at this place.

When the returns began to come in and showed that McKinley was making gains, the Republican Executive committee hired Assembly hall, and in a short time that place was filled with jubilant, shouting Republicans. Attorney A. J. Rowley read the returns, while a great many leading Republican politicians of Akron were seated on the platform.

At 12:30 when the returns seemed to show that McKinley was re-elected, the enthusiasm of the Republicans knew no bounds. They shouted themselves hoarse, they threw their hats and canes in the air, while many small boys in hall, with tin horns, made a great din. Afterward a band was hired to celebrate the victory.

On the streets crowds of McKinley rooters were much in evidence, and several young fellows, more enthusiasts
